Where the election board of a voting place, as shown above, is incomplete, it is the duty of those appointed by Supervisors to fill all vacancies.

Where no election officers have been appointed for a voting place it is the duty of the electors of that voting place to appoint officers.

Each of said political parties shall hold their primary elections on the same day, and at the same time and in the same room, which said room shall be provided with a separate ballot box for each such political party and under the same penalties for bribery, illegal or fraudulent voting as provided in the general election laws, in accordance with Chapter 68, of the Session Laws of the Twenty-third Legislative Assembly, of the Territory of Arizona, entitled, "An Act to Provide for Primary Political Elections and the manner of holding the same," approved March 16th, 1905, and said Primary Elections shall be conducted in strict accordance with the provisions of said Act.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of Mohave County, Arizona.

(Seal)

Thos. McNeely,
Clerk Board of Supervisors of Mohave County, Arizona.
